The Secretary of State
Department of State
2201 C Street, NW

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As you are planning your trip to Asia, I am most anxious to meet with you again at your earliest convenience. As you will remember, during our last meeting we talked about having objective information on issues and problems we deal with in various areas of the world. In this case I am particularly concerned about our increased involvement with the Asian nations. I am convinced there is much we can do to improve our position in that part of the world regarding short term arrangements or long term objectives.

As a private citizen my experience in dealing with both the official and private sector in Korea, PRC, Taiwan and Japan has given me in-depth understanding of their feeling toward the West. I have not always agreed with them but they have trusted me and consider me their friend. I am sure you, yourself, both as a public servant and private citizen have had the same experience. It might be beneficial for you to have additional information before you depart on this important mission. I am sure you have not received this kind of information from the other Asian experts.

Your office is trying to set up an appointment for me to meet with you and I hope you will see fit to arrange it at your earliest convenience.

Warmest regards,

Anna Chennault

cc: Bill Casey - This administration has not fully utilized the knowledge and capability of Asian Americans. It is still not too late to correct that. I do hope you will have a chance to bring this up for the interest of our country.
